PARIS WRAPPED IN FLAMES

Burning of the Tuilleries, Louvre and Other Places by the Communists.

Terrible Slaughter from the Windows and Barricades—Desperate Hand-to-Hand Conflicts in the Streets.

The Wounded Weltering in Blood, and the Dead Unburied.

French Reports.

CONTINUED SUCCESS OF VERSAILLISTS.

VERSAILLES, May 24, Morning.—The Government troops yesterday dislodged the Federals from the Faubourg Germain and elsewhere, and are to-day continuing their victorious march. It is thought the Federals will attempt to escape towards Belleville and Parcier. Crowds of repulsive looking men, destitute of uniforms and in rags, have been taken prisoners.

THE TUILIERIES BURNED.

VERSAILLES, May 24.—Afternoon.—Great fires are raging in Paris in all directions. The Tuilleries have been entirely burned down. It is hoped that the galleries of the Louvre may be saved.

A CARNIVAL OF BLOOD AND FIRE.

ST. DENIS, May 24.—This has been a most terrible day for Paris. The city is burning in many places, and the destruction of a great part of the central and eastern district seems inevitable. The Communists still hold all the districts between the place Vendome, Tuilleries and Belleville. The troops are mowed down by the fire from windows, barricades, mitrailleuses, but steadily gain ground. The slaughter is awful.

A GASTLY SIGHT.

OUTSIDE OF PARIS, May 24—Evening.—The dead remain unburied, and the wounded lie unattended in the streets.

NO MERCY TO THE CITY BURNERS.

VERSAILLES, May 24.—In the assembly this afternoon, theirs announced that the Hotel de Ville was in flames. He expressed his horror at these acts of vandalism, and declared that it was the determination of the government to punish the perpetrators without mercy.

DESPERATE CONFLICTS IN THE CITY.

ST. DENIS, May 24.—After a brief full fighting in Paris recommended yesterday, continuing all night. The troops of Generals Donai and Viry surrounded the Tuilleries, Louvre and place Vendome. Desperate fighting followed, the federal disputing every inch of ground; at daylight these positions still remained in the hands of the federals. The Tuilleries is seriously damaged by shells. A combined assault of all the troops is now going on.

FIRE BRIGADE GONE TO PARIS.

VERSAILLES, May 24.—The fire brigade has gone to Paris, and Thiers has gone to superintend the operations. There is every symptom that the fire was caused by patroliers. There are reasons to fear that the Palais Royal, Hotel de Ville and other State edifices had been prepared by the Communists for destruction by fire.

English Reports.

FOREIGN MINISTERS NOT TO PROTECT INBURGENTS.

LONDON, May 24.—The Telegraph's special says that the foreign powers have ordered their representatives in Paris not to protect the insurgents. It is said that Washington did not act in concert with the other diplomats.

Bellivray, the Communist minister, was killed yesterday.

PARIS FIRED BY THE REDS.

The insurgents have fired the palaces of the Tuilleries and the Louvre, and the Legion of Honor and the Council of State on the southern side of the Seine, opposite the garden of the Tuilleries. Other palaces are also burning. The Versaillists have advanced their left wing to Belleville, the centre to the palace of the Louvre and the Palais Central, and their right to the Observatory. The fumes and smoke of petroleum pervade the city.
